19. Corrupt and Fraudulent Practices

- For the purpose of this Bidding Process:

(1) “corrupt practice” means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public or other official in a procurement process or in contract execution directly or indirectly through a third party; and

(2) “fraudulent practice” means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the Company or its Affiliates, and includes collusive practice among Bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish prices or terms at artificial and non-competitive levels and to deprive Company or its Affiliates the benefits of free and open competition.

- Bidders supplying false or misleading information shall be disqualified from any further participation in the Bidding Process.
- Milkfed Punjab requires Bidders observe the highest standards of ethics during the Bidding Process, including when a Bidder is selected as a Successful Bidder.
- Milkfed Punjab shall reject a Bidder selected as the Successful Bidder if it determines that such Bidder has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the tender; and/or shall declare a person, firm or company ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, to engage with the Company and its Affiliates, or to be awarded a contract of the Company and its Affiliates, if it at any time determines that the person, firm or company has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in its engagements or in competing for, or in executing, any contract.
- Any Bidder, other than through the Authorised Representative, found to be canvassing or have canvassed any of the Company or its employee, contractor, consultant or anyone who has a direct working relationship with the Company, regarding the tender may be excluded from further consideration.

20. Force Majeure :- If at any time, during the continuance of the contract, the performance in whole or in part by either party of any obligation under the contract is prevented or delayed by reasons of any war, hostility, acts of public enemy, civil commotion, sabotage, fires, floods, explosions, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, lockouts, acts of God (hereinafter referred to as "events"), neither party shall, by reason of such event, be entitled to terminate the contract, nor shall either party have any claim for damages against the other in respect of such non-performance or delay, provided the performance and/or delivery is resumed as soon as practicable after such event has come to an end or ceased to exist. The decision of Milkfed Punjab as to whether the performance or delivery has so resumed or not, shall be final and conclusive, provided further, that if the performance in whole or in part or any obligation under the contract is prevented or delayed by reason of any such event for a period exceeding 30 days, the Milkfed Punjab may at its option, terminate the contract without any obligation to compensate.

21. Arbitration: In the event of any difference or dispute having arisen out of any contract or agreement at Milkfed level/union level the same shall be referred to The Registrar Cooperative Societies, Punjab to decide the dispute himself or transfer it for disposal to any officer not below rank of Deputy Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Punjab for dispute resolution by the arbitrator. The provisions of the Punjab Cooperative Societies Act, 1961 and rules 1963, as amended up to date shall apply to arbitration proceedings which shall be held in the office of designated arbitrator.
22. Jurisdiction: The jurisdiction of the courts in case of any further legal dispute post arbitration, will be the courts at Chandigarh U.T. only.
23. Termination by Convenience. The Contract can be terminated by the Milkfed Punjab in whole or in part at any time, in the larger interest of the Milkfed Punjab. If the Contract is terminated before performance is completed, the successful bidder will be paid only for that work which has been satisfactorily performed for which costs can be substantiated. Managing Director, Milkfed Punjab will reserve the right to adopt any method deem fit to ascertain the work that has been successfully completed by the successful bidder. All work in progress will become the property of the Milkfed Punjab and will be handed over promptly by the successful bidder.
